

“SINGING IN THE GRAINBIN”

with Vern Beardson

Purpose: The goal of this program is to help children experience the FUN of music.

Approach: This is a positive, often uptempo, walk through various styles of American music history. “Singing in the Grainbin” incorporates voice and hands on interaction with a good dose of humor. The fun of music discovery is explored as Vern incorporates the use of Guitar, Banjo, Mountain Dulcimer, Mini-Accordian, Harmonica, Jaw Harp, Nose Flute and student rhythm section with the vocals.

Program: “Johnny B. Good”
“Surf in USA”
Blue Grass Medley
Mountain Dulcimer “Liza Jane” and “Bile them Cabbage Down”
Harmonica “Old Susanna”
Jaw Harp demonstration
Mini-Accordian Sea Chantey
Nose Flute demonstration
Banjo Children on rhythm, vocals with actions
Guitar “Crawdad Song”, “The Ballad of the Rooster”
Acapella “Sweet Pea”, “Spirituals Medley”
Close “I’ve got a Dream” by Jim Croce

Specific songs may vary slightly as appropriate from school to school.
